REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET. FOR THE WEEK ENDING JULY 3, 1851

Virginia ....

[Since our last week's review, there has been comparatively no out-door business going on, with the exception of the articles of Turgentine and Rosin, an account of the sales of which will be found below. Our information from Fayetteville is down to yesterday afternoon, and we learn that enough to enable our lightest draught boats to navigate. In consequence of the low stage of the rivers and tributaries, there has been no produce by water from above tide way for

BEEF CATTLE-Some fair quality grass fatted beeves have been received since our last, and taken by butchers at quotations. A good article will command highest figure. BACON-Very little, if any Bacon of consequence has been received since our last review. The stock, although someprices have consequently remained about as quoted last week. Corn-Received from Baltimore, 1000 bushels, sold at 67 cents per bushel, cash. Store rates, in lots, at 70 to 75 cents | the 31 day of July instant. per bushel. Meal-The stock is fully fair, and sales from store, in lots to suit, at 874 to 90 cents per bushel. Coffee-Slow sales, Rio at 10 cents per lb. in lots.

FLOUR-A fair stock in store, and light sales from store, in lots, at $5 to $5 25 per bbl. for Baltimore. HEADING-We hear of no receipts or sales. An article that will pass inspection, will bring $10 per one thousand pieces. Hay-Sales of 2 or 300 bales North River Hay, at 70 a 75 cents per 100 lbs.

LIME-None received. Stock in first hands groing light. LUMBER-Nothing doing in river lumber. LARD .- There is not a barrel or keg of Lard in first hands and the article is in demand. Last sales at 124 cents per lb.

LAMES & MUTTON .- A small lot of very good quality of Lambs and Mutton from Sampson County, brought, a few days since, $1 50 per head. Molasses-Moderate sales of cargo reported last week, at 19 cents per gallon, 90 days.

NAVAL STORES .- Since Thursday last, the sales of Turpentine have been generally steady, opening on Friday at our lowest figure, for yellow and virgin dip. The sales since Friday have all been at $2 40 for yellow; $2 70 for virgin; $1 30 for hard per bbl. of 280 lbs., at which rates the market closed to-day. The sales of the week foot up about 3300 bbls., inat 26 cents. Rosin .- Sales of 5,021 bbls., including all qual-$1 75 for inferior No. 1. Ter .- We hear of no receipts of consequence since last report : that on the market when we closed last week, and a few barrels received afterwards, finally went at $1 35 per bbl., being a decline on former quotations of 35 cents per bbl.

POULTRY AND EGGS. - This market is rather better ded, though prices are fully maintained. See table. Potatoes-New Crop Irish Potatoes continue to arrive in moderate supply, and sales in lots to suit, or at retail, at quotations, from carts. PEAS-None received. Selling from store, in lots to suit.

STAVES-We know of nothing doing in this market. SHINGLES-Nothing doing. No receipts, TIMBER-But one raft, assorted lengths, has been sold this week. See table. None received-market bare. Stock in miller's hands growing light.

EXCHANGE-Firm. See table.

LIST OF LETTERS.

wo rient JAS. G. BURR, P. M. [49-11] JUST RECEIVED AT PTERCE'S ECOKSTORE. THE following new books, viz:—Genevra, or the History of a Portrait, by an American Lady. Hear what the Saturday Courier says of it: We take much pleasure in recommending to our readers a new work, just issued, a full and perfect edition of the popular Nouvellette of Genevra, one of the most striking American productions ever issued in this country. There are researces in it that have never in this country. There are passages in it that have never been surpassed by any living author. It is published complete in one octavo volume of over 200 pages, for the low price of 50 cents.

Continuation of Dickens' Pickwick Papers. Pickwick Abroad, or The Tour in France, is an admirable continuation of Boz's famous Posthumous papers of the Pickwick Club, and promises to become equally popular. The characters are sustained with great spirit and fidelity, and the scenes and incidents are varied and full of life. The Irish Widow, or The Last of the Ghosts.

The Gold Worshippers, or The Days we Live In, a future historical novel: one of Harper's best publications.

Louise La Valliere, 2 parts, or the conclusion of the Iron Mask; Dumas' last and best work. The Countess of Rudolstadt, a Sequel to Consuelo; full of chaste and heautiful imagery.

Mary Howitt's last new work. The Heir of Wast Wayland; this will be a very acceptable book for the ladies.

Graham, or Youth and Manhood, a romance, by J. L. McConnel. Those who know anything of the author's fascinating style of composition, will be anxious to possess themselves of this book. Talbot and Vernon, by J. L. McConnel. It is an excellent work, interwoven with a deep and thrilling interest from beginning to end.

The Glenus, a family history, by J. L. McConnel. The author has read the human heart in a great variety of phases, and describes with the pen of a master.

Caroline of Brunswick, 3d part. Lord and Lady Harcourt, or Country Hospitalities; full of wit and humor. 1851, or The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. Sandboys, their son and daughter, who came up to London to enjoy themselves, and to see the great Exhibition.

ALSO, Spanish without a master: Free German do. do.; Italian do. do. 25 cents apiece, or all five for one dollar. Etiquette for Ladies; Do. for Gentlemen; Knowlson's Farrier : Do. Cow Doctor. The Invalide or the Pictures of the French Revolution, a

The Fair Isabel, or the Fanatics of the Cevenues, a tale of the Huguenot War, a deeply interesting work.
